Topics Discussed, Tasks Assigned, and Decisions Made:

1. Approval of last month's minutes: Approved
2. Testing: Testing on writing and the first part of reading has already been completed. There will be 4 more days of testing. So far everything has run smoothly. We are testing all students in 6 days this year thanks in part to the efforts of the testing coordinator, administration, and teachers. This will enable us to get students back to a regular schedule quickly.
3. Master Schedule: The decision has been made to have a 5x5 schedule next year.
4. DAC update: Conversation revolved around the new high school in Bonita Springs and the possibility that a high school and a middle school will be built in the East zone pending funding
5. Good of the order: Mrs. Carlson and Mrs. Mills have been nominated by the National Junior Society for there . The National Junior Society is a program that teachers students proper etiquette, how to behave in certain situations, and certain dance steps such as the Fox Trot.
